TECHNO COP™

Step into the future... technology has overtaken society—the rich are richer, the poor are poorer—chaos, unrest, destruction... lawlessness reigns, terror rules. But this is your territory, your assignment with death. These are your streets and you have volunteered to clean out the scum, destroy the streetgangs and eliminate the deviants that pollute your city. Yes you have your er, but armed with and keep net, what cess to neutralize ds who lie in wait a cop is always being a cop of the future is a step into the unknown.
